

Terry McDermott

Born: June 18., 1984

High School: Saint Agnes High School (New York)

College: University of New Mexico

High School

- All State in Basketball and baseball in 1969.

College

- Drafted out of high school in the first round to the Los Angeles Dodgers so did not play college ball.

Professional

- 1st round and 8th overall pick in the 1969 draft by the LA Dodgers.
- Topps All Rookie Team in 1969

Honors

- 8 Time Sportscaster of the Year in New Mexico , awarded by the NSSA

Community

- Sportscaster at KHGM for 5 years and KOAT for 12 years. Was leader in the "Save Our Sports Programs" in 1987.
- Coached UNM Lobos Baseball in 1977 and 1978.
- Coached several Youth Baseball teams and basketball teams.

Family

- Wife, Betty Anne McDermott and she has worked in New Mexico in various jobs since they moved here.
- All 4 of his children played high school sports in the state of New Mexico. Terry and Michael are his 2 sons and they both played for New Mexico Highlands in college. His daughter, Katie, played softball for Eastern New Mexico and his daughter Shannon played LaCrosse at Fort Lewis College in Durango.