

Deanna “Dee” McGillivray

Born: 05/14/1986 Brooklyn, New York

High School: Eldorado High School 2004

College: University of New Mexico Bachelor of Science in K-12 Physical Education in 2011

College

- 2005-2009: UNM Women’s Rugby Team.
- 2009, Co-captain and placed third for Division 1 Collegiate National Championships.
- 2009: named Division 1 Collegiate All American for USA Women’s Rugby.

Professional

Deanna is a multi-sports athlete – rugby, handball, and weightlifting.

- 2008-2013: USA Women’s National Rugby 15s Team.
- 2010 USA Women’s Rugby 15s World Cup Roster as a Reserve.
- 2010 Division 2 Nationals 2nd place New Mexico Club Rugby Atomic Sisters.
- 2011-2012: USA West All Star Rugby 15s Team.
- 2011- Current: Physical Education Teacher for Albuquerque Public Schools.
- Currently teaching ninth grade PE and 9-12 Weight Training I, II, & III at Sandia High School.
- 2012 USA West All Star Rugby 7s Team.
- 2012 USA Women’s National Rugby 7s Team.
- 2014 USA Olympic Team Handball. Played against Puerto Rico March 2014.
- 2016 Played Profession GRID League as a Strength Specialist for Miami Surge matches were aired on NBC Sports.
- 2017 New Mexico State Record Holder for 90kg weight class in Olympic Weightlifting in the snatch (91kg), clean and jerk (112kg), and total (203kg).
- 2017 Placed 9th in the country for the 90kg weight class at Nationals 2017.
- 2018- Hold the Snatch State Record (93kg), Clean and Jerk State Record (110kg), and total State record (203kg) in the 87kg weight class in Olympic weightlifting.
- 2019- placed sixth at Nationals for the 87kg weight class in Olympic weightlifting.

- 2019- hold snatch state record (85kg), clean and jerk state record (103kg), and total state record (188kg) for the 81kg weight class in Olympic Weightlifting.