

Eugene Gene Agnes

Born: May 29, 1935, Albuquerque, New Mexico

Died: August 27, 2019, Albuquerque, New Mexico

High School: Albuquerque High School, Albuquerque, New Mexico 1954

College: University of New Mexico, bachelor of science 1981 master's of science 1988

Trinity Theological Seminary, doctorate 1995

High School

- Letter in basketball.

Professional

- 1955-1993 Officiated 38 years in New Mexico, which served a role model and mentor for many officials today. He was known as one of the greatest officials in the Rocky Mountain and Southwest region.
- 1955 Baseball umpiring career included the Connie Mack World Series in Farmington for 10 consecutive years beginning in 1959. He umpired in the Western Athletic Conference from 1965 to 1985. Gene was an alternative umpire for the Albuquerque Dukes (AAA Pacific Coast League).
- 1972 officiate in National Basketball Association and American Basketball Association.
- Officiated in 10 bowl football games including the Fiesta Bowl, the Cotton Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, and the Sun Bowl.
- Officiated in 25 state high school basketball tournaments.
- U.S. District Court Clerk Bailiff
- Federal Probation Officer
- Pretrial Services Officer
- Counseling as a Mental Health Therapist ... retired in 2016.

Community

- Active in God's House Church, community, and civic affairs.

Family

- Wife, Linda
- Children: Cheryl Agnes-Russey, Eugene Agnes II, Jayne Cunningham, Daryl Agnes Sr., Cynthia Agnes-Renfro, D'Mitri Agnes, and Chequille Agnes.
- 16 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.