College

- 1974 – Recruited by hard by Assistant Coach, John Whisenant to come to UNM. John and Steve would forge a friendship that still lasts today.
- 1976 – Steve would have his best game of his college career when Don Haskins' UTEP Miners came to The Pit on March 6 looking to roll a UNM team with a depleted roster. There was a mutiny within the Lobo ranks and on March 1, 1976, six of the black players on the squad quit and said they would not return to UNM if Ellenberger remained as the head man. That boycott produced one of the more memorable wins in Lobo history. UNM had retained one starter and took to The Pit floor with a starting lineup that combined for a 13.8 scoring average. The Miners were expected to mop up the floor with Lobos. It didn't happen. The Lobo fell behind by 12 points early, rallied to a 56-49 lead with 3:56 to play and held on for a 59-58 win. The Pit went nuts. Steve Davis led the Lobos with 22 points and teammate, Dan Davis scored 20 points. Steve, who they nicknamed "Motor Body" for his near reckless hustle on the court. He was only averaging 1.8 points per game for the season – 46 points in 26 games. Steve was added to his night's scoring heroics after being fouled just before the buzzer with the game tied at 58-58. He would make the first free throw to win the game for the Lobos. This game was voted as one of the top 10 games in Pit history.
- 1976 Co-WAC Player of the Week with Dan Davis for their efforts in the win over UTEP ... mentioned in Sports Illustrated Magazine for this accomplishment.
- 1977 – Lobo Spirit Award for the player with the positive attitude and energy on the basketball team.
- 1977-1978 Steve was going to quit and focus on his academics when Head Coach Norm Ellenberger decide he still wanted Steve part of the team. Coach Ellenberger asked Steve to be a graduate assistant coach for his senior year. The team would win Western Athletic Conference Champions and lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. It would also be considered one of the best Lobo teams ever.

Family

- Janet, wife of 30+ years
- Marie, mother ... Steve's number one sports and business fan
- Bruce, father ... Steve's sports hero, who died in a tragic railroad accident in Steve's senior year of high school. His dad played on the 1951 State Championship Clovis Basketball team. Bruce scored 23 points of the team's 48 points in the 48-41 win over Hurley High School. Like Steve, Bruce played for the South All-Star team. He played college at Wayland Baptist University.
- His uncles were also a big influence in Steve pursuing an athletic career. Uncle Cecil Davis was All-State in baseball, basketball, and football. While in college playing basketball, he played professional and minor league baseball as a pitcher with the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into The Wayland Baptist University Athletic Hall of Honor in 2005-2006. Uncle George Davis was a very good high school athlete at Clovis High School. Uncle Jim Davis played basketball and ran track at New Mexico St. Uncle David Davis and Aunt Sue Davis were big supporters of Steve's career.
